

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

Considerable activity in athletics is manifest now especially during the afternoons. Golf, basketball, tennis and football are all being practiced by lovers of the sports.

The 1902 class gave a dancing party in room 27 of the physical building Friday evening. We haven't yet learned of the success.

Prof. Howard lectured before the students taking the kindergarten course Wednesday. His subject, "The Brain and Nervous System," was handled in a very practical way.

The Mt. Pleasant teachers spent the past week visiting the school of Salt Lake and Provo. On Sunday they inspected the work at the training school.

Prof. Marshall returned from his trip to California Wednesday. He says that it is terribly hard to get back to solid work after such a thoroughly enjoyed vacation.

The surveying students were out Thursday doing practical work with the transit.

Miss Sampson of the training school, who underwent an operation for appendicitis Thursday, at last report was getting along finely. We hope for her speedy recovery.

On Monday those who attended chapel were given a rare treat. Prof. Schetter was present with his guitar and played two fine selections in a most artistic style.

Prof. McCallan has planned to take a much needed rest in a vacation of about two weeks. He will leave Monday for Boston.

The branch normal is reported by Prof. Stewart, who returned from there Wednesday, to be in good condition, the attendance increasing and bright prospects ahead. Principal Porter, he says, is going to take a canvassing trip throughout the southern counties shortly to further the interests of the school.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS.
Miss Stevenson, who teaches in Mount Pleasant, was a visitor at the Summer school on Monday.

Principal W. W. Barton, of the Summer school, has purchased a cozy little home on South Tenth East, and will take possession about October 25.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY.

Provo, Utah, Oct. 17.—Owing to the crowded conditions of the High School, the missionary students have been given seats in college hall.

President Ben E. Rich of the Southern States mission addressed the students during theology hour last Thursday morning.

Among the visitors at the Academy this week were President Anson M. Cannon of the Salt Lake Stake and President David Cannon and Frank Blake of St. George.

President Brimhall and Mrs. Susa Y. Gates were the speakers in the Young Ladies' Improvement meeting last Friday.

Out of respect for President Snow school was closed on Friday and the Saturday afternoon matinee and the Literary society were postponed.

Last Monday night the enrollment had reached eight hundred and forty-five and not all of the students who have come since conference have yet registered.

One of the most important and popular branches taught in the commercial college is telegraphy. Many of the students who graduated from this department last year are now in paying positions.

There are twenty-three bright, energetic girls in the domestic science department this year, two of whom are studying with the object of becoming teachers. Miss Pearl Snow, President's granddaughter, is preparing to teach the work in Salt Lake City next year.

The students studying George Eliot's "Silent March" are greatly enjoying the graphic descriptions of English country life and character, to be found within that famous novel.

President Crosby of Pangulitch, who has recently been working in the Big Horn country, addressed the students on Monday morning. He reported the "Mormon" colony in good condition and spoke of the advantageous opening in that country for young people.

The academy's tribute to President Snow was a scroll of flowers on which were the words "As God is, man may be." Thus loftiness of thought and beauty of expression were tastefully combined.

Prof. N. L. Nelson delivered two lectures before the Tonic country teachers in Mercur last Saturday. In the afternoon his subject was "The Art of Remaining Young," and in the evening, "The Meaning of Character in Education."

The Commercial graduates of last year pledged themselves to contribute one per cent of their earnings for the next five years to aid in the establishment of a commercial library. This week the "Business and Banking Encyclopedia" was received as the first installment.

The rack containing the papers published in all parts of the state, has been placed in the hallway between the High School and College buildings. It is evident from the number of students who gather round it each day, that the papers contain items of vital interest to the boys and girls away from home.

Logan, Oct. 17.—Some sickness has crept in among the students of the College, and a few have been seriously ill. The President of the College and members of the faculty have visited them, and say that the sick have almost recovered. They have the good wishes of the faculty and students.

School was dismissed last Friday in honor of President Snow. Morning chapel convened, however, and Prof. J. F. Miller spoke at length on the life and labor of the deceased. On the same morning Hon. James E. Hart of Paris, Idaho, visited the college, and made some very encouraging remarks to the students.

A class in Tahitian language will begin a short time. The applicants for the course are missionary students, who expect to fulfill a mission in the Society Islands.

The faculty has ordered a new tennis court, and when same arrives, Miss Bush will show Instructor Cardon a few tricks about the game. A gymnasium athletic class is now completely organized.

The 1902's challenged the 1901's for a friendly game of basketball, and felt a little "last-year-like," when the 1901's came out with the greatest number of baskets.

If any one desires to see a modern equipped business department, it will be well to visit room 12 of the west building.

The Philomathean Literary society met Monday afternoon for the first time this year. A new set of officers was elected, which already given evidence of reviving this society to its former standing—perhaps the leading association of the college.

Prof. Willard Done, a former instructor of the college, was a visitor this week.

President Linford returned Monday from the funeral of the late President Snow. He reminded the students, by brief remarks on Tuesday morning, of the solemnity of the affair.

Prof. Thatcher of the musical department, is now quite ill. We all hope for his speedy recovery.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.
At the close of the fifth week the nature of the past week. This exceeds the enrollment of a similar date of last year by about one-third.

Professor Wright, who succeeds Professor Close as horticulturist, has arrived, and is already at work on the grounds. His family will not come to Logan for a month or two.

The foundation for the new front of the main building is nearing completion, and the contract for the brick work has been let. The green shingled

The foundation for the new front of the main building is nearing completion, and the contract for the brick work has been let. The green shingled roofs of the front of new barns is now a striking feature of the college farm.

Dr. Yoder recently gave the students a very interesting morning talk on the chess distinctions coming under his notice during his ten years' residence in Germany.

Mr. Hill has made up some quite attractive picture albums for his friends, as souvenirs of his trip through the Yellowstone park during his vacation.

Professor Paria reports about seventy-five students in the commercial department.

A match game of football with the deaf mutes of Ogden is advertised for Saturday afternoon. This is the first game of the season.

The "Sorosis" gives a ball in the "gym" Saturday evening. This opens the social season.

Dr. Moench has responded to the urgent demand of down-town people for evening classes in German, French and Spanish. He reports a "perpetual boom" of his department in the college.

A large order for books for the college library has just been sent the jobbers.

A Deep Mystery.
It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Elsie Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I am now able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c. at Z. C. M. L. Drug Dept.

NURSING MOTHERS

want Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil, almost without exception. So before they get to be mothers, eating for two is no small tax, continued for months.

The emulsion not only is food itself; it gives strength for digesting usual food.

If the milk is scanty or poor, the emulsion increases supply and enriches quality.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.
